YORKVILLE, S. C THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1862

07-Mr. JOHN R. ALLEN, Post Master at Chester, is o rom the pest-office, Post-Masters are requested to nodfy us tion the Post Office from, as well as the one to, which the

WEATHER AND CROPS

from heat to cold-wet to dry. One miles in a direct line, and the Alms vided attention. He must retrace all ment. of the greatest freshets known for years has occurred the past week. In the bottoms fencing has been washed away, ing information.' and the young corn entirely destroyed, the same having been confined to the firm either. blade, but the fresh, we suppose, has left us about an average crop. Fruit of the death of the gallant Turner Ash- that prevailed all last Summer and promises an abundance, though the for- by. The laurel and the cypress is tru- Fall, in front of Washington. ests furnish but little mast. At the ly embodied in our remembrances. "It present writing, fires are comfortable was a bloody field where Douglas fell.' fined altogether to provisions, though an enrolment of all transient males in 25@30. Butter, 15@20c.

NEWS ITEMS.

The Conscripts of this State will soon be summoned to some point near Columbia, at an early day, as the necessary arrangements will be completed by the 15th inst. All persons between the ages of 18 and 35, except specially exempted by the Confederate Act must attend-Physical disability is to be tested by a Codfederate Surgeon. As the conscripts can form or join Partisan companies, but little time is to be lost.

The pay of Chaplains in the Army, is now eighty dollars per month, with EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Gen. J. Johnson Pettigrew, of North battle, is wounded severely and a pris- withdrawing his army from their recent oner, but doing well. Col. Lightfoot lines before Richmond, at three o'clock and Maj. Loring, also.

nandina, Florida; their new comrades rear guard of the retreating foe about Regiment, the heroes of Manassas— notwithstanding our men were ready to J. M. Adams, slightly, on the head; tinued brisk at intervals until eight o'will not tolerate them, and of course sunrise. A sharp musketry skirmish were engaged in the early-morning there true masters must leave them to ensued, the results of which are as yet charge of skirmishers at Williamsburg, one. Yet the Yankees still cry out at der cover of their gunboats at West ever our pleasure to do justice to all,

Savannah-Gen. Lawton, of that post having been sent to Virginia an independent command.

an important aggressive movement.

soon will be, a Central Depot of Infor-west. Hence the difficulty of obtain-while the uplands have been washed into killing of Gen. Butler; also, of Andrew gullies, adding to the almost general Johnson, of Tennessee, by Ex-Governdestruction. The wheat that was or Brown, who it was said was killed threatened with rust had partly escaped, also-but our latest dates do not con- than a defeat. If he halts at West gainst unnecessary duties.

Northerners could only see their own not dry, Johnny Crapeau.

Dear Enquirer :- The latest news at Carolina, reported killed at the late this point is that McClellan commenced yesterday morning, and that Gen. Gus. The small pox is prevailing to a ter-rible extent among the negroes at Fer-ced a vigorous pursuit, overtaking the glorious remnant of the old 4th

Gen'l Jackson has been doing won- of the old 4th Regiment. We may killed and six wounded. As soon as we T. C. Williams, slightly, in the leg; my was from fifteen hundred to two ders during the last ten days, in the here add that Col. Giles' and Col. Brat-could get out of the cars we were order- James Wood, severely, in the side. Gen. Humphrey Marshall, it is said, Shenandoah Valley. Milroy was at ton's commands, and Lieut. Paul's Bathas sent in his resignation to the War Front Royal; Banks at Winchester; talion Louisiana Volunteers, constitu-Department. This, we presume, is in and they desired to unite before receiving the remainder of our brigade, all pursuit of them—the Cavalry (5 com- Lieut. Commanding Company G., consequence of the order to Major- ing the shock of battle from Jackson. behaved quite as well as any on the panies) 2 companies of Infantry, and General Loring to take charge of this "Stonewall," who kept up the show of 5th inst., so far as we know; but our one of Artillery; the Beaufort had aldepartment, Gen. Marshall claiming a steady advance upon Winchester, on field of view is necessarily limited on ready gone in pursuit. We overtook last Friday morning detached a portion the field of battle. To compensate for regiment was then halted, and arrange-The Charleston city."Reserves" have of his command and sent them hastily this in some measure, we have solicited, ments were then made to attack them been ordered into active service. From to Front Royal, where they met Miland again solicit, immediate informalat three o'clock in the morning, they wounded, we are indebted to Captain the advertisory tone of the daily papers, roy, cut him to pieces, and put his Hestion of all deeds of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and Fitchett. He says, "the wounded belast Thursday, when it was resolved to the daily papers, roy, cut him to pieces, and put his Hestion of all deeds of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual, company then being encamped within a mile and leads of individual and leads of there seems to be a determination to de-sians to an ignominious and disgraceful or regimental daring and valor, espe- a nair of us, at a place cancel describe the wounds: fend the old City to the last-to de- flight. The two sections of our forces cially with Carolinians, amongst whom ment were then detached to support a KILLED. - John Turney, W. A. Moore, East Tennessee. stroy, if they cannot save it. The Cita- were again combined, and led at once the Enquirer has its chief circulation. section of the Beaufort Artillery Com- J. A. Clinton. del Cadets are sent to James Island, as against Banks at Winchester, who in To ourself verbally or by note, or to panies; A & F were detailed, and Capt. Wounded.—S. H. Lynn, H. J. Althe Mercury says to "take a place in his turn suffered a total defeat. The the picture" there—there is not one of two columns of the enemy were now correspondence such information will the picture" there—there is not one of two columns of the enemy were now correspondence, such information will circuitous route, and come in the rear C. H. Mintz, J. C. Faris, J. H. Year-troops. The buildings were slightly routed, and in full, disorderly retreat, always be received as a very acceptable of the enemy, as they should have to wood, J. J. W. Gazaway, Jos. Murphy, injured. Our batteries did not respond. Andrews, the train-stealer and spy hotly pursued by the victorious Jackson. | Courtesy. This is all the "justice" that pass to Port Royal Ferry—the other R. E. Wilson, D. R. Johnson, Curtis Our scouts from across the river report brought in. He has been convicted by cross the Potomac. The last account are entitled to from us. court martial at Knoxville, and sent to of Jackson is, that he was occupying Yesterday evening was a gala-time taken by it—the road was principally Atlanta to be executed.

Williamsport, Maryland, on the Fredwith the Palmetto Sharp-Shooters.— through a densely wooded country, with all the superfluity of undergrowth Alabama, post-marked "Johnson Is- stand of arms, and ammunition in pro- battle-flag, inscribed with but one word 1862." It is brief. He had been sick, 800 prisoners and more still coming in ment to Col. Jenkins' new regiment .but was again doing well. He had writ- constantly; and having effectually bro- Gen. Longstreet laconically said:ten often, but only this letter has been ken up the Baltimore and Ohio Rail- "Colonel-Officers and Soldiers: road, which is the main channel of com-of Tennessee, is fitting up a division for loss on his part of only about 100 men. ble to mention you in the same way templated death-struggle of the morrow The Guardian learns that on Satur- soil of Maryland for the liberation of to do battle."

leaving behind them camp equipage, of redeeming their homes from a ruth- reciprocated; and that he thought that on him; we knew that no pickets were skirmishers at the time. less bondage, and their mothers, sisters, he did not promise too much for his on the road from our men, and the horse The 5th South Carolina, Colonel be made from above, north; and this Whatever it may be worth, the North- sweet-hearts, wives, from insult and men, in saying that they would stand with accourrements certainly indicated a Giles, captured three regimental colors, will hold the attention of a column of Whatever it may be worth, the North-sweet-hearts, wives, from insult and men, in saying that they would stand rider, whether he was a Yankee picket together with one red flag. This latter our forces, or engage them.

The papers are still harping on the re-loathsome surveillance. It is said that by those colors with honor to themsel-who had fled without his horse or one of was taken by Capt. Walton, acting on Gen. R. E. Lee is in command of our cognition by France of the Southern 70,000 Marylanders are ready and ea- ves and service to the country. Then our own troopers we could not tell; we Gen. H. R. Anderson's staff, and pre- forces, and commands the entire and ger to rally to the "onward" standard turning to his command, he told them took the horse, however, sent forward sented to the regiment in the hottest of universal confidence of our men. Fears seem to be entertained of an of Jackson. Many have arms hidden that he had pledged their honor and pickets to scour the road, and marched the fight. Fears seem to be entertained of an of Jackson. Many have arms hidden that he had pledged their honor and on; we halted at a bridge and awaited attempt by the enemy to reach Columin the earth, while those who have not, sense of duty to the defence of that flag, for the attack to be made by our troops; bia by way of the Congaree with their will seize any old scythe, bowie-knife, wherever it may wave; and asked them: but unfortunately the enemy either as- BANKS.—Newbern, Washington and stave off the action several days. gun boats. We doubt the practicabili- axe, they can lay hands on, to strike a "Am I right?" After a respectful certained that we were in force, or ex- other towns in the Eastern part of this ty, even should the necessary means blow for their native State. The spirit pause, to ascertain if his remarks were pected it, and left their camp between State having been occupied by the ene- in Richmond.

House Hospital, the next largest, is a his steps since the opening of the presmile to the right of this line, going ent campaign, in order to threaten Jackson. He can hold Norfolk only at Reports have been published of the the sacrifice of Maryland. When he to the conclusion that a few more such successes will prove more disastrous Our latest news bring us intelligence duced to the same state of inactivity lage on the Charleston and Savannah and then, in our turn, made for Pocotalinight and morning. The health of the The Municipal officers of each village, command is small, and our loss there many families are still residing near our District is excellent; and business con- or District, will soon be called on for is comparatively unimportant, in the camp.) It is decidedly refreshing and any ions for the conflict and showing for the conflict and show exportation seems at a stand still. Flour their respective limits, with a view to near future. If Gen. Johnston has the our fair country women, no one can apall stood the march finely; but 22 miles from wagons, $4,50 @ $4,75. Bacon, prevent any evasion of duty due the sagacity which we all attribute to him, State, and secure the conscription a- we believe that in four or six weeks they had been confined to an uninhabit-A large number of steel bracelets problem of our destiny at this place.—

Ine health of our regiment is steadily all good. I have troubled you too long improving, and if we continue long in and I will close abruptly, hoping the were captured in the Yankee camps on The enemy are foiled in the very be- our present camp, we will soon appear Sundays battle at Richmond. They ginning, really, of their second raid once more with full ranks. are said to be a neat article, and will upon Richmond-as effectually, though probably be tried on the manufacturers not as disgracefully, foiled as at Ma-lence, have again commenced opera-The London Times says: If the chase them, as a "deep-mouthed" pack My principal object in this letter will Northerners could only see their own would a chared bear to his very den.

On the morning of the interests, they would stop short now Let them feel the force of Southern 29th ultimo, the Yankees landed at and treat, as they will probably never steel. Let them be harrassed night Port Royal Ferry, and took up line of have so good an opportunity. We are and day. Let our whole army raise march directly towards Pocotaligo sta-

We should have informed your read-of the 17th May, 1861, has survived a finished, the cry of "Yes! yes! yes!" 12 m. and 1 p. m. and hurried towards my, some doubt, we are informed, ex-

The Horkville Guquirer. are not all sent to the C. S. Hospital in Divisions. If Jackson can collect a as he becomes better known. Captain horse. On the side of the road (shot through the heart) lay the dead body manchester, but are scattered among round him an army of 75,000 men, Seabrook makes an efficient Adjutant. various private and public hospitals.— Washington falls, Maryland is redeem- Capt. Withers and Capt. Meacham, The same may be said of the wounded of other States. Hence the difficulty ed, and the flag wrought by the fair both Lieutenants in our old company, Station with a dispatch to Colonel of ascertaining with certainty the facts hands of Miss Jennie Carey, floats over and both now in command of companies Walker, the commander of our expediin regard to individuals in particular the Washington Monument at Balti- of their own, are very acceptable to tion, and had taken the wrong road and corps. There should be, and doubtless more! These may seem high-sounding their men in their new positions. Inwords, with McClellan's powerful army deed, most of the officers in our brigade, picket stationed at the forks of the mation, to which persons can repair with the assurance of getting a reliable before us. But Jackson is in no dan- we believe, are trying to do their duty; body, each quickened his step and answer, instead of an unreliable one ger from him. He has thrown himself every leisure day is improved by dril- grasped tighter his weapons; we pushed ton. obtained after visiting twenty or more into a vortex from which he cannot eshospitals, two of which (Camp Winder cane. He must be stranded on the outcape. He must be stranded on the out- drill; and the whole brigade, for the ported the enemy only a few hundred and Unimborazo) are cities of sick, hold-ing several thousand. The distance be-skirts, or engulphed at the centre.— opportunities enjoyed, are rapidly ac-ies and the cavalry were thrown forbeen remarkable for its alternations tween Chimborazo and Winder is two Our army is ample to occupy his undi-quiring facility in manual and move- ward to scour the woods and rouse the

> For the Yorkville Enquirer. FROM THE COAST. CAMP SIMONS, JUNE 1st, 1862.

Dear Enquirer: Thinking some of finds that such is the case, he will come your readers would like to hear from the 17th Regiment, I take an idle moment to give you a few items. We have at last been removed from John's Isl-Point, he will be, to say the least, re- ings are now located near a little vil-Gen. Heth has sustained a repulse like our old Island camp we have an recently in Western Virginia; but his occasional view of home scenes, (as I ever could expect to see them; they is comparatively unimportant, in the face of the grand denouements of the face of children, and the flovely smiles of the face of the grand denouements of the face of children, and the flovely smiles of the way. Our men time he will gloriously work out the The health of our regiment is steadily assure you. We have many a blistered foot in camp now; but our appetites are Our Yankee friends, after a long silence, have again commenced opera-kees will never be able to earn their nassas: what is left to be done, is to "long rolls" since we left the Island. would a chafed bear to his very den .- be to give you an account of our last "My Maryland," and march forward. tion, on the Charleston and Savannah following list of killed and wounded of -The enemy have just opened their Now is the time. The tide is auspic- Rail Road; our forces had all been Company G., Captain I. N. Withers, batteries from the opposite side of the ious. Unless our criminal inertness removed from that point, with the exception of two companies of cavalry. the engagement near Richmond, on the notice was given. The women and after Manassas be repeated, the tide of The enemy had doubtless received inbattle is rolling back from Virginia's formation from the negroes escaping to lish for the satisfaction of those intershores, and the dawn of Maryland's de- them; at half past 2 o'clock, p. m. we ested: liverance already gold-tinges the eas- received orders to march immediately to meet the enemy; a train brought the order, and without time to prepare a verely, in the leg; Lieut. J. W. Carroll, ty minutes several of our men have mouthful to eat, we were to be on the severely, in the thigh; Lieut. Jas. Black, start, in 20 minutes, and anxious to be Corp. J. L. McElwee, slightly, on the clock. The enemy had three batteries on the way.

At half past 3 o'clock we were on the thigh and leg; D. M. Allison, setheir fate—they have no home, but in unknown to us. McClellan's intention, headed so gallantly by the hero of Santhe hospitable grave, if they can find it is thought, is to retire his army untraction. It is the control of the command of Lieut.

At hair pass to clock we were on the thigh and leg; D. M. Allison, selected the road, as fast as steam could carry verely, in the leg; J. P. Barron, selected the road, as fast as steam could carry verely, in the leg; J. P. Barron, selected the road, as fast as steam could carry verely, through the month; J. J. Cowletter the command of Lieut.

Armstrong, situated on the bank of the river, and Capt. Barry's battery of four as the sun was setting, and found that ard, slightly, on the shoulder; D. H. river, and Capt. Barry's battery of four THE following resolution of the Govthe enemy had actually advanced as far Carroll, very severely, through the left guns, situated on the heights overlookthe North, "Lo, the poor African."

Point, so as to co-operate wholly or in the retrograde movements of our Ar
The retro nantly and successfully effected, during which the enemy was twice repulsed.

Gen. W. B. Smith, has already taken the place of Gen. Mercer, as Military Commandant of the Charleston District —the latter having been transferred to Savannah—Gen. Lawton of that roes. ed to push forward after the enemy, one of Artillery; the Beaufort had already gone in pursuit. We overtook them seven miles from the Station; our regiment was then halted, and arrangements were then made to attack them at three o'clock in the morning, they at three o'clock in the morning, they had for being encamped within a mile and thalf of us, at a place called Gardner's a half of us, at a place called Gardner's two Companies of our regiments.

The several Produce Loan Agents appointed in each state shall accept Cotton in kind, which has been destroyed by our shells. The abeen destroyed by our shells. The above account is reliable.

Late Northern papers report that a council of war was held at Nashville last Thursday, when it was resolved that a force of fifteen thousand men should be put in the field to re-take should be put in the field to re-take for the place at which the same is deposit to offer the council of war was held at Nashville last Thursday, when it was resolved that a force of fifteen thousand men should be put in the field to re-take should be put in the field to re-take force where the place of deposit is safe, he may conclude the produce Loan Agents appointed in each state shall accept Cotton in kind, which has been destroyed by our shells. The several Produce Loan Agents appointed in each state shall accept Cotton in kind, which has been destroyed by our shells. The above account is reliable.

Late Northern papers report that a council of war was held at Nashville last Thursday, when it was resolved that the purchase would be desirable, and the price ascertance and that the place of deposit is safe, he may conclude the revers. Several of the latter have the revers. Several of the revers shall accept Cotton in kind, which has been destroyed by our shells. The abean of the revers been destroyed by our shells. The several Produce Loan Agents all produce Loan Age As your correspondent was with the

has been apprehended by citizens and Banks' army fled in broken squads a- we are able to give any one—all they troops bivouacked until 3 o'clock, a. m. Parrott. detachment, he will speak of the route A. J. Witherspoon by his family in a vast amount of provisions, 12,000 set, presented them with a beautiful common to the low country, and we Laurens District by Dr. J. H. Jones knew not at what moment we might Laurens District, by Dr. J. H. Jones, come across the enemy as we had not a at the Manchester Hospital. The ball land, Lake Erie, three miles from portion; having totally demoralized an __"Williamsburg;" but that word con-single picket on before us; the night had in it a piece of hardened steel, Sandusky, Ohio," and dated "May 2, army of 12,000 or 15,000—taking 2, tains a delicately expressed compliwas so dark you could not see your hand before you, and our near proximitating wound, and sharpened as if by ty to them required us to preserve the machinery. One would think the leaden utmost silence. It was certainly one of missile deadly enough in itself without the most romantic marches your Cor-I hand you this flag-this battle-flag. respondent has ever taken; the scream The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer of munication between Washington and You are honorably mentioned at Wil- of the night birds, the multitudinous already everlastingly broken, such arthe 5th reports that Governor Harris, the North-West. All this, too, with a liamsburg. I trust that we may be a-of the 17th May, 1861, has survived a finished, the cry of "Yes! yes! yes! the Ferry; the consequence was they ists in portions of the country as to the twelve-months terrorism and tyranny; went up from the line. The whole had too good a start for us; had we all currency of the notes of the banks forprocure a correct list of the killed and wounded of our State—our own editor being among the wounded, may account for nothing on the subject having been yet received. The correspondent of the Charleston Mercury says:

The wounded from South Carolina

MClellan's Concentration.

Mclellan's Concentration.

Several private letters found on the merely located them in the length of spectage and attacked them in the length of spectage and in very happy style.

Mclellan's Concentration.

Several private letters found on the subject that such deliver ance.

Mclellan's Concentration.

Several private letters found on the subject that such deliver ance that such doubts are without foundation. The battle-field of Saturday last present us at the cardinate of the banks were all removed them easily, but our scouts were too them easily, but our scouts were all removed them easily, but our scouts were too the banks were all removed them easily, but our scouts were too the banks were all removed them easily, but our scouts were too them easily, but our scouts with thin conclusive sindered to the banks were all removed them easily, but our scouts were too them easily, but our scouts were too them easily, but our scouts with thin conclusive sindered to the banks were all removed them easily, but our scouts with thin conclusive containts and represent use the banks of the banks were procure a correct list of the killed and even burns more fiercely for redress and thing passed off with the usual ceremo-ledge Riflemen; he had been to the enemy; but whether the scouts were deceived, or a small detachment of the enemy were kept in the rear to cover their retreat, we are unable to say; but regiment was captured, and all his arwith the utmost exertion, we did not come up with them until they had tamaking towards Beaufort. Our artil-sonburg, on Thursday, in a skirmish ken their boats at the Ferry, and were lery unlimbered at the river, and sent the Yankee rear guard, "on the hills at last been removed from John's Isl-land, and after several counter march-we fired on them as long as we could, lage on the Charleston and Savannan go, which we reached before sun set, Rail Road, called "Ravenel." We are having marched upwards of thirty miles highly pleased with our present loca-with nothing to eat, and without water tion; we have excellent water and un-fit to drink. Our men were as cool as and attacked Gen. Jackson this mornassure you. We have many a blistered all good. I have troubled you too long next time we have a "Yankee chase"

> salt, on the coast of South Carolina. FROM THE BATTLE GROUND.

> > CAMP NEAR RICHMOND,)

we can report some good execution done by the 17th Regiment. The Yan-

June 2nd, 1862. Messrs. Editors :- I send you the

KILLED.-H. H. Moore. Wounded .- Capt. I. N. Withers, se

Missing .- J. H. McKenny and H. lenced. W. BAITY SMITH,

Jenkins' Palmetto Sharp Shooters.

the thigh of a brave South Carolina the addition of the above diabolical contrivance. If the Union were not Glorious hero! the first to tread the whenever your country calls upon you to impress upon each one peculiar feelings of awe. An incident served to in- late battle may be mentioned the fact four points-1, at Drury's Bluff, close day a considerable force of the Yankees her oppressed and down trodden people! Col. Jenkins remarked that he was crease it: As we were passing through that one company of Col. Jenkins' 1st up the bank of the James; 2, by the made their appearance on John's Is- The new "Maryland Line" are with glad to see from the inscription on the a deep wood, supposed to be in less regiment of Palmetto Sharp-shooters, Long Bridge; 3, by Bottom's Bridge; land, and were attacked and driven off him; and how their hearts must throb flag, that the confidence which his men than 1 mile of the enemy, our advance Company E, Capt. Colclough, captured and 4, directly from Mechanicsville. land, and were attacked and driven off him; and how their hearts must throb flag, that the confidence which his men came upon a horse grazing by the road one hundred and thirty prisoners by and thrill with delight, at the prospect reposed in their Division General, was side, with sword, saddle and bridle all themselves. They were deployed as Burnside and the Monitor, with other oners in abundance. He will get Shields he would, if he could, concentrate the to-morrow. Generals Stewart and Elzy entire available force of the United slightly wounded."

JACKSON'S VICTORIES!

Stonewall's Victory over Fremont. RICHMOND, June 9, 1862.

The Yankees crossed the Chickahon iny yesterday and attempted to fortify. but were routed by Hood's brigade, leaving forty dead on the field. loss two killed and two wounded.

Jackson has whipped Shields to-day. - ed and missing. It was a complete victory. One entire RICHMOND, June 9 .- Gen. (late Col. Turner Ashby was killed near Harriwith the enemy. Johnson J. Hooper, late Secretary of the Provisional Congress, died in this city on Saturday.

RICHMOND, June 9 .- The following dispatch was received last night. STAUNTON, June 8 .- Shields crossed the Shenandoah river at Port Republic.

ing. After a short contest Shields was driven back with the loss of two pieces of artillery. Fremont attacked Ewell. We have Shields is on the bank of the Shen andoah and Jackson holds him in check. I hope to be able to announce a great victory to you to-night. SECOND DISPATCH. Fremont is completely routed, and in full retreat. We will get Shields to-

I will give you casualties to-morrow

THIRD DISPATCH. Generals Stewart and Elzey are both wounded, but not dangerously. It is a complete victory. Jackson is in close pursuit, and has captured artillery and prisoners in abundance.

Bombardment of Chattanooga. CHATTANOOGA, June 6-5.30 p. m

Our batteries are replying, and the sharpshooters are keeping up a hot fire. No serious damage has yet been done to the buildings. During the past thir-

CHATTANOOGA, June 7 .- 8 p. m .-The bombardment has ceased. It con-my was from fifteen hundred to two partment. He has also been instructed to obtain from Substitutions and. Two of their guns was si CORN, &., &c.,) which they piedged to the Produce Loa Bureau, for whielf payment will be immediately made it

The enemy are reported also at the mouth of Battle Creek, below Shell Mound, twenty-two miles below Chattanooga, eight thousand strong. They are building flats and preparing to cross

Our troops are in fine spirits. The Confederates are still holding Chattanooga. The enemy's force is believed from Nashville and Huntsville, and is estimated as eight thousand strong .-Sharp work is expected to morrow.

ing but very light skirmishing since Sunday. Our forces have since then

The enemy have up balloons nearly

The immense rains of the 4th may The wounded are very well cared for CHICKAHOMINY BRIDGE, June 5.

McClellan's Concentration.

and the armies of the West. It is apparent at once that Richmond is inten-

"Jackson has gained a complete vic- if he fails, it must be his last, and the tory over Fremont, and is in close pur- the last we will ever see or hear of Mcsuit. We have taken artillery and pris- Clellan. Here, in front of Richmond, States, believing that the fate of the So savs a despatch to us from Staun- "rebellion" and his own glory rests upon this one blow.-Richmond Eng. Federal Losses.

The Herald of the 7th and also the Tribune state that the Yankee loss at the Seven Pines, was from 3.000 to 3. RICHMOND, June 9.-Thank God 500 killed and 25,000 to 2,700 wound

WHEREAS Lavina J. Wilson has

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

WHEREAS Smith Senders has Fremont attacked Ewell. We have driven him back, and Ewell is still pres-

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 5, 1869 GEN. JAMES JONES of Colum

WM. M. WALKER,

DR. ALFRED CRAVEN

Resident Surgeon Bentist. YORKVILLE, S. C.

CARRIAGE SHOP.

LL persons indebted to the firm of LL persons indebted to the firm of LOLICE.—AL THE NEXL GEN-

RATES OF POSTAGE parent at once that Richmond is intended to be the prize upon which is staked his last and grandest effort, for if he fails, it must be his last, and the the last we will ever see or hear of Mc-

TO PLANTERS AND FARMERS. THE Subscriber desires to inform the

ROSE'S HOTEL

A CHEAP LIGHT. HAVE on hand and for sale, a sup

M. JONES, Manufacturer's Agent

A LSO A LOT OF GOOD WRI-May 8 M. JONES. "LIGHT! LIGHT!! LET THERE BE LIGHT!"

T is non-explosive—it is a cheap light

ATHEREAS the Plaintiff did on the

THIS day, J. M. Deal, of King's

THE SOUTHERN OIL